CHAMPIONING DIVERSITY, EMPOWERING CHANGE

Future Latino Leaders Summer Law Institute

A transformative week-long program designed to inspire Hispanic high school students to pursue careers in law. Held in Washington, DC, it offers unparalleled insights into the legal profession, guidance on the college application process, and exclusive opportunities to meet influential leaders and tour significant sites. It stands alone as the only program providing high school students with such extensive exposure and connections to major law firms, corporations, and government offices.

Access Law Summit

A program tailored for incoming Hispanic law students aspiring to careers in top corporations or global law firms. This summit provides unparalleled guidance and resources, equipping students with the knowledge and skills needed to achieve their professional goals. Participants have the unique opportunity to engage directly with leaders from AmLaw 100 firms, global company executives, and esteemed law school faculty, gaining insights and forging connections that can shape their future careers.
