The Access Law Summit is a biannual virtual program designed by the Hispanic National Bar Foundation (HNBF) to provide guidance, advice, mentorship and resources to law school students. The 2026 Winter Series is targeted at students who have an interest in pursuing a job at a leading law firm. The program is free and open to all law students.

There are three virtual panels for students to attend. Each panel will be comprised of big law attorneys from various practice areas, law firms, and geographic locations across the U.S., and each will be followed by a 15-minute virtual breakout room, where students will be able to engage directly with practicing attorneys and ask questions.
